

Klove is an inspiration throughout the day. It is supported by listeners and this is a God given right to listen in the freedom of America. The freedom of choice. I see many cars with KLOVE stickers and its nice to know others in Omaha are listening to a postive alternative and that they don't have to worry when their kids are listening to it. Its good wholesome music for our community.